

Albion - Hotel & Restaurant

Location: W Main St | Designer: Jared Carda

This collaboration project highlights the re-use of an existing building by adding components to make it a successful hotel and restaurant. Focusing on the hotel, the main concept was to add glass block to the facade to dress up its appearance, without totally covering up the past. The block would take advantage of thermal massing and heat the building.

REPIONEERING

